BLOWN INTO ETERNITY.

Four Men Killed by the Explosion of a Locomotive Boiler.

WHITE HAYES, Pa., June 30.—The boiler of shifting engine, No. 235, on the Central Railroad of New Jersey, exploded near Neaghsheon Junction. Engineer Thomas Trip, Mauch Chunk; Fireman J. Pope, Linstford; Brakemen Gallagher and Smith of Mauch Chunk were instantly killed. The body of Engineer Trip was crushed and bruised in a terrible manner and was found 100 yards from where the explosion occurred. The Fireman's body was not found. The brakemen were blown in an opposite direction, and it is evident from the wounds they received that they were killed instantly. No trace of Fireman Pope's body has yet been found, and it is thought he was blown to atoms. The locomotive was totally wrecked, the boiler being blown 300 feet up the mountain side. There was some defect in the water pipes. As the engine reached Neaghsheon the fire underneath the boiler was drying out and vapor was noticed issuing from the fire box. Fireman Pope had just descended from the cab for the purpose of examining the boiler when the explosion occurred.

Insurance Company in Trouble.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 30.—The Flour City Life association, an assessment life insurance company organized in 1887, is said to be in trouble. It is reported that three of its officials have been indicted. They are president C. E. Underhill, Secretary William P. Chase and Adjuster James McCargo. McCargo is understood to be charged with larceny, and the others as accessories. President Underhill is also vice president of the Life Union association of New York city, a concern closely connected with the Flour City. The state superintendent of insurance is investigating the alleged fraudulent methods of the association.

Osborn Bought Some Cartridges.

COLUMBUS, O., June 30.—In the Elliott murder case Monday the deposition of Chas. Kraft of Salt Lake City was taken. It was to the effect that two hours before the fatal meeting Osborn gave him "gun" to Robert Wolfe and sent him to a hardware store to purchase cartridges for it. Harry Larimore, the hardware clerk, testified that an unknown man (supposed to be Wolfe) bought cartridges of him about the time that Kraft saw him depart from Osborn at the World office and go in the direction of that store. John Landan swore to the alleged pistol practice of Osborn the day before the murder.

Murder and Suicide.

LAWRENCE, Mass., June 30.—Maria Burke, aged 38, was shot and killed by John Funch, aged 34, who had been paying attention to her for some time and was jealous. Rausch immediately afterward put a bullet through his own head and fell dead. The tragedy occurred in front of the Everett mill, where the girl was employed. The couple had quarreled at her father's house Monday evening. Rausch called Maria out of the mill, and after a few words the shooting occurred. Both the parties were thoroughly respectable and well liked.

Been Robbing an Insurance Company.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 30.—M. T. Lowery, for some years a general agent of the New York Life Insurance company, was brought here Monday by a special agent of the company and lodged in jail. He was arrested in San Francisco, and is charged with obtaining large sums of money under false pretenses. Lowery, while a resident of this city, was a high roller, and spent hundreds of dollars in high living. He is well known in the insurance circles throughout the United States.

Tried to Swallow a Violin Bow.

COLUMBUS, O., June 30.—Patrick Mulroney, a juggler and sword swallower, injured himself fatally Sunday by trying to swallow a violin bow. He was accustomed to swallow a sword, but on Monday he essayed to swallow the bow, but he failed each time on account of the intense pain caused by inserting it in the throat. Presently he began vomiting blood. He continued to suffer paroxysms of retching lasting at each episode much blood, until Monday morning, when he died.

Collision on the Rail.

EVINGHAM, Ill., June 30.—An extra eastbound passenger train on the Vandalia collided with a westbound local passenger twelve miles east of here. J. K. Lucas, engineer, Harry Hines and J. D. Dree of San Antonio, Tex., and a mail messenger named Larzey were badly injured. Lucas perished fatally.

Two Persons Drowned.

OTTAWA, Ill., June 30.—Charles Fox and Daniel Yents were drowned while bathing in the Fox river, eight miles northeast of here. Yents was wading about in the shallow water when down. His companion hastened to his assistance and, falling into the same hole, both were drowned.

Ran Down by a Train.

FORT WORTH, Tex., June 30.—As the northbound Missouri, Kansas and Texas passenger train was leaving the city it ran into a wagon and team at the West-erford street crossing. Five persons were injured and the team killed. None of the injured people are in a serious condition.

Andrews Spoken at Sea.

GLoucester, Mass., June 30.—The dory Mermade, Captain Andrews, was spoken on June 29 by the schooner Delta W. Tarr of this city sixty-three miles off Highland light. Captain Andrews reported that he was very tired, having had no sleep for thirty-six hours.

Gladstone Takes a Walk.

LONDON, June 30.—Mr. Gladstone is said to take a short walk on the grounds of his country seat at Llanelli.

THE KEYSTONE BANK INQUIRY.

John Wanamaker Offers to Testify Again—More About That Bank Stock.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—The Bardeley investigating committee renewed its sittings yesterday and examined a number of witnesses. A communication was received from Postmaster General Wanamaker, in which he said: "It seems to be thought by some certain evidence offered at the last meeting of your committee is not in harmony with the testimony delivered by me when I appeared before you as a witness. I assume that your committee fully understand the matter. If, however, there is any explanation wanted from me I will be glad at twenty-four hours' notice to meet any member of the committee and explain any or every item of my statement or attend at any meeting of which I have notice."

Tracing That Keystone Stock.

The first witness examined was S. P. Durham, of Trenton, N. J., the president of the Mechanical National bank of that city. He testified that certificate No. 200 for 200 shares of Keystone bank stock issued to John Wanamaker, and with the power of attorney signed by him, was placed in the bank by H. J. Yard. It was placed there as collateral security for a loan. "The bank officers had never in any way communicated with John Wanamaker in relation to the stock," Effingham P. Morris, the president of the Girard Trust company, testified that certificate No. 450 for 200 shares of Keystone bank stock at the time it had been in the possession of the Trust company, being a part of a lot of 1,000 shares on which the company loaned John Wanamaker money on March 3, 1890.

Signed the Transfer of Stock.

Howard Spencer Jones, to whose name some of the Wanamaker stock was transferred, testified that he had been in Wanamaker's employ for twenty-seven years. He said that he knew nothing of the two certificates of stock which stood in his name beyond the fact that he remembered signing the transfer at Wanamaker's request. Rankin, in whose name some of the certificates were transferred, he said, was a youth employed in Wanamaker's office at one time, but he had not seen him for two or three years.

A CRUSADE AGAINST QUAY.

Philadelphia Merchants and Producers Start a Hostile Movement.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—An address to the citizens of Pennsylvania was issued yesterday, signed by 150 business and professional men, all of whom are Republicans, claiming to point out the causes of the "degradation of public affairs" in the state and the necessary steps towards improvement. Senator Quay's management of the Republican machine is alleged to be corrupt and in strong contrast to the rank and file of the party. Quay is held responsible for the overwhelming disaster the party met with last fall. His lieutenant in the legislature are charged with committing a political blunder by hostility to the ballot reform bill, in violation of the pledges of the party.

Demands Quay's Retirement.

"These things have found a fitting culmination in the robbery of the city and state treasury. As the party will soon be called upon to nominate a state and city treasurer and attorney general, the Republicans must be given to honest men or the party will meet with another defeat. In the presence of these facts Pennsylvania Republicans must not hesitate as to their duty, or be in doubt as to their course. It is a crisis, and it can only be met by the retirement of Mr. Quay. More competent and worthy leadership is necessary, and an undivided demand must be made for the retirement of these men from the places which they have disgraced. Many of the professional men signing the document are clergymen.

SPLITTING LEGAL HORSE-HAIRS.

A Decision Restoring the Great Nelson to the Trotting Track.

DENVER, Colo., June 30.—President Beaman, of the American Trotting association, will issue a circular today reinstating the great stallion Nelson and his owner on the tracks of that association. Nelson was ruled off the tracks of the National Trotting and American Trotting associations in September, 1889, after being charged that race at Beacon Park, Miss., was "fixed" for Nelson to win.

In his ruling President Beaman says that there is no rule in the by-laws of the association by which man who drives his horse to win can be punished, even though it may have been arranged beforehand for that horse to win the race. He also says that the manner in which Nelson was suspended was illegal. Nelson has the world's stallion record of 2:10 1/2.

Mrs. Lease's Son a Forger.

WICHITA, Kan., June 30.—Charles Lease, the 16-year-old son of Mrs. M. E. Lease, who is at present addressing Alliance gatherings in different parts of the country, was arrested last evening on a charge of stealing a check and a watch, the property of H. E. Corn, an insurance man. An endorsement was forged and the check was cashed by a boy who said he was given a dime for doing it by young Lease.

Sad Incident at a Fire.

HOBOKEN, N. J., June 30.—During a fire in a tenement at 156 Ferry street yesterday, Mrs. Ketta jumped from a second-story window, but was rescued unhurt in a blanket by the firemen. She frantically endeavored to re-enter the house to save her little baby, and had to be removed by the police. The child was badly burned and will die. It was rescued by the firemen.

"Frenchy No. 1."

NEW YORK, June 30.—The trial of "Frenchy No. 1" for the murder of Carrie Brown in a manner suggesting the work of Jack the Ripper, was begun yesterday. A number of witnesses repeated their testimony given before the coroner's jury as to the prisoner's visit to the East River hotel, the murder, the finding of blood stains on the prisoner's clothing, etc.

Hippolyte Is on Top.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The steamer Ozama, which arrived Monday morning from Haytian ports, reports that all is quiet at the ports they touched, and that Hippolyte had effectually quelled the insurrection of May 28. At that time it was learned that 500 persons in all had been killed.

Two Bad Citizens Break Jail.

MARYSVILLE, Ind., June 30.—Joseph Munday, held on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill, and Frank Dice, held for trial for murder, escaped from the county jail at Marysville.

THE INDUSTRIAL FIELD.

Details of the Riot at the Franklin Coal Mines.

THE SITUATION GROWING SERIOUS.

Colonel Haines Telegraphs to Seattle for More Troops—Three Companies of Militia Now Camped between the Imported Negroes and the Strikers—Lorillard Closes His Big Tobacco Factory in Jersey City.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 30.—Matters at the Franklin coal mines have assumed a still more threatening form, and Colonel J. C. Haines has wired to this city for another company of militia to report at once and to bring ammunition, camp equipage, and rations for a week's service. Porter Robinson, one of the mine bosses, was caught by a military party, charged with killing Tom Sunday and Ed J. Williams, leaders of Sunday's riot. The first authentic information concerning the riot was received from Franklin. At least 1,000 shots were fired during the riot, which lasted about thirty minutes and resulted in the death of Tom Morris, a white striker, who was killed instantly; Edward J. Williams, who was shot through the abdomen and died six hours later, and the wounding of four strikers, two women and one colored guard.

Fired Upon from Anshuda.

The trouble commenced with the return of the train at 7:40 p. m. from New Canaan, which contained a number of Pinkerton men who had escorted a load of negroes to the latter mining camp. The guards say that when the train was pulling into Franklin it was fired upon by some of the white miners in Anshuda, and that while no one was hurt, bullets whistled through the windows of the train at a lively rate. The guards returned the fire from the windows, and the engineer seeing the danger put the train under full head and ran it to the depot, which is inside the dead line. When the train had stopped the white miners commenced firing upon the negroes' camp. They were between two fires, as the outside miners were situated on the flats below and on the hill above the camp.

Answered Shot for Shot.

The negroes went perfectly wild, and all the efforts of the guards could not restrain them. They kept within the camp lines and poured volley after volley upon the miners on the flats, who replied with equally as much violence. The miners on the hills kept up a good fire, but were answered shot for shot by the negroes. After the shooting intense excitement prevailed among the negroes and they gathered about their camp in groups threatening to make another charge upon the white miners. They were finally quieted by the officers of the company. During the day the excitement had been high, but three companies of militia are camped between the strikers and the negroes.

FOUR THOUSAND IDLE.

Lorillard's Big Tobacco Factory in Jersey City Shut Down.

NEW YORK, June 30.—P. Lorillard & Co.'s big tobacco factory in Jersey City shut down and 4,000 hands are out of employment. Some of the employees say the lockout is due to a strike in one of the departments. The members of the firm were taken back and their demands acceded to. The Poles were kept at work with the boys. This resulted in another strike. The boys would not work with Poles, and when the firm refused to discharge them the lads went out. They are still out. The tobacco, before it can be used in the cigars, must first pass through the dipping room. Several departments, in consequence of the strike of the "dippers," had to be shut down. The fear of a general strike is said to be the reason for the closing of the factory and the taking of stock.

Will Throw 300 Out of Work.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., June 30.—The McLean County Coal company, which holds the Bloomington trade exclusively and gives employment to 300 persons, will close operations July 1 for an indefinite period. This step is taken because of the new law which goes into effect on that date and which provides that all coal shall be weighed before it is screened.

The Majority Remained Out.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—Dobson's plush mills were started up Tuesday and fifty-eight weavers resumed work. The number returning to work is small when compared with the 468 weavers who went out. Others, however, are expected to return to work soon. The strikers held a meeting and resolved to remain out until their original object is secured.

Suspended Operations.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., June 30.—The Huntingdon Manufacturing company, controlled by the Iron Car Equipment company of New York, has indefinitely suspended operations. Three hundred men are thrown out of employment. It is rumored that the plant will be removed to Tennessee.

A Murderer Safe for Three Years.

EDWARD, N. J., June 30.—Edward A. Hallinger, colored Jersey City murderer sentenced to be hanged was denied a writ of habeas corpus in the United States district court Monday. His counsel will at once appeal to the supreme court of the United States. This case is a stay of execution, and the case may not be decided for three years.

Kaiser William's Scheme.

BERLIN, June 30.—The Kaiser has on foot a scheme to send into Alsace-Lorraine a strong German element by inducing wealthy Germans to buy large estates offered for sale in the provinces and settle them with German tenants.

NABBED THE SWINDLER.

An Exciting Arrest at the Garden City.

STORY OF SOME STOLEN DIAMONDS.

And How a Chicago Sharper Tried to Make a Stake Thereon—Deluded Into the Grasp of the Police by the Fair but Plucky Loser—An Exchange of Brick Joints for Brown Paper Greenbacks—"Yours in Distress" Is Feeling Very Melancholy Now.

CHICAGO, June 30.—Officers from the Central and Desplaines street stations made a good catch last night in the arrest of a supposed diamond thief on the west side. The arrest was untraced with just enough romance to make it interesting. About ten days ago a burglar stole from Mrs. George Morgenthau's bedroom, at 4213 Calumet avenue, four diamond rings valued at $300. Yesterday Mrs. Morgenthau received a note dated "Saturday, 2 p. m.," and signed "Yours in Distress," which read as follows: "If you wish to secure the gems and diamonds you have lost, wear a shawl over your head and carry a white handkerchief in your left hand so that I can recognize you, and meet me at 8:30 this evening at the corner of Sangamon and Monroe streets. Bring $300 with you. If you do not I can easily sell the diamonds for that amount. Do not attempt to notify the police, as I will have one man to watch you from the time you leave your house and two men will watch you at the corner of Sangamon and Monroe."

Made Another Appointment.

Of course Mrs. Morgenthau could not keep that appointment. Yesterday afternoon she received another note from "Yours in Distress." It was dated "Sunday, 11:30 a. m.," and read: "As I did not get the note I wrote you Saturday in the mail early enough for Saturday's delivery, I will make the time of meeting Monday eve at the same time (8:30) and the same place." But the police had already been informed of the robbery and Detective Costello and Barrac, of the Central station, were detailed on the case. Mrs. Morgenthau placed the mysterious letters in the officers' hands. To throw her watchers off the track, she drove in a cab to her brother-in-law's trunk store at 187 State street, yesterday afternoon, and there met the two detectives. The officers arranged the plan.

Hatched a Little Scheme.

Mrs. Morgenthau should drive in a cab alone to Sangamon and Monroe streets to meet the thief at 8:30. The officers would be in hiding in the vicinity and arrest the thief the moment he approached her. Mrs. Morgenthau, who is a small brunette of delicate build, was fearful that the thief, a thief, might be a woman, when the officers came out of hiding, but after much persuasion she consented to carry out her part of the programme if J. H. Morgenthau, her brother-in-law, could ride with her in the cab. An hour before the appointed time, Detective Costello and Barrac and Mr. Childs, a brother of Mrs. Morgenthau, were in hiding in ex-Alderman Harris' house, at the southwest corner of Sangamon and Monroe streets.

Made It Quite a Show.

A dozen reporters had the "tip" and were "hunted" in the dark alleys and back yards of the vicinity. Desplaines street station heard of the intended arrest and Lieutenant Wheeler, Sergeant Roelle, and Detectives Hoffman and Fleming quietly deserted themselves around the corners without informing Officers Costello and Barrac that they were in the vicinity. Promptly at 8:30 Mrs. Morgenthau and her brother-in-law drove up in a hansom cab. Mrs. Morgenthau alighted alone and the cab drove away. She was wearing a pink-colored dress, with a white shawl thrown over her head of dark-brown hair. As she walked back and forth under the glare of the electric light, carelessly swinging a white handkerchief in her hand, she trembled and her face was as white as the silken shawl.

Enter the Heavy Villain.

Ten long minutes rolled by, which seemed as if they were as many hours as Mrs. Morgenthau, when the cab returned, and just then a slim young man, wearing a derby hat and a black suit of clothes, stepped out from the northeast corner and handed her a small match box. She handed him her purse well filled. Just then Sergeant Roelle placed a glistering revolver in the face of the young man and told him he was wanted. "Why, what do you want me for?" asked the thief, with the greatest surprise and utmost coolness, as he looked down the gun barrel. The thief had no chance to run, and the Central station detectives were surprised to see other officers making the arrest. The Diamonds Were Bricks.

The Matchbox he gave Mrs. Morgenthau contained some pieces of broken brick. He denies committing the robbery, and says he saw an "ad" in a paper offering a reward for the return of the diamonds and he concluded to play the trick with the matchbox and get $300 from Mrs. Morgenthau. But had he escaped he wouldn't have been a winner, for the purse the lady gave him was filled with brown paper. At the station his name was found to be Charles Burchard. He said he was a writer and sold sandwiches for Chapin & Gore at Washington park on Derby day.

A Natural Coat of Mail.

NEW YORK, June 30.—Patrick Wood, a patient in Bellevue hospital, is regarded by the doctors as a phenomenon. His skin has gradually hardened until it is like a covering of sheet iron, not so hard but as unyielding. He is as helpless as though he were a statue. He cannot move hand or foot. The disease is a rare one and has been diagnosed as scleroderma, or hidebound. There is no known cure for it. Wood is 42 years of age and a painter by trade. He has been in the hospital seven years.

Races at Washington Park.

CHICAGO, June 30.—The following is the record of racing at Washington park yesterday: Bill Kendig, 1 mile, 1:43 1/4. Dearest, 2 miles, 10:27. Atticus, 1 1/2 miles, 8:45. Bonair, 1 mile, 1:40 1/4. Longshot, 1 1/4 miles, 1:05 1/4. Tom Hardin, 3/4 mile, 1:04 1/4. Portlaw, 1 mile, 1:40.

Vessel Collision on Lake Michigan.

MILWAUKEE, June 30.—The schooner Charles Wyman ran into and sank the Starke, 40 miles from Port Washington at 11:30 Saturday night. The Starke capsized soon after she was struck, but no lives were lost.

A DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT

The Catholic Educational Union Receives Its Friends.

Probably the handsomest and best crowd ever seen in Guards' armory was there last night, all things considered. It would be extremely hard to find another company of 400 people that could compare with that one. There were handsome ladies and gentlemen, and fine costumes, till one's eyes almost ached for the sight of a homely or slouchy girl. The good humor and animation was enough to make a wooden idol want to dance a set or two.

The entertainment was given by the A and B classes of Newman circle, Catholic Educational union, for the purpose of making the members better acquainted and establishing more intimate social relations between the young people of the Catholic churches. In that it was extremely successful. There were about 400 young people present. A nominal admission fee was charged to make the attendance more select. Though the entertainment was not intended for profit, some money was cleared.

An enjoyable program was given as follows: Instrumental duet—"Qui Vive," Miss Stacia Steele and Julius Sauerbaum. Recitation—"The One Mass Chaise," Miss Nellie Rosen.

German quartet—"Evening Prayer," A. Spaeth, J. Sauerbaum, A. Sherman, A. C. Regenbuss.

A one act comedy, entitled "Advertising for a Husband," was given by Miss Maggie Hughes, James Kelley, T. J. Muleady, II, J. Heiler.

Vocal Solo—"The Baby Adrift on the Sea," Miss Annie Brown. Recitation—"An Instant of '98," Miss Abbie Ryan.

Vocal Quartet—"Moonlight Will Come Again," Misses Steele and Brown, Messrs. Sauerbaum and O'Haran.

Miss Annie Brown received two encores on her solo. After the program ice cream and cake were served to the entire company by a corps of 12 expert colored waiters in dress suits and wearing white ties.

Dancing followed for an hour or more. Music was furnished by the opera house orchestra. The young people left for their homes near the hour of 12, and not a one was there who did not leave the hall with reluctance.

The reception committee was Dan Malloy, Joe Schoules, Mike O'Connor, Joe Heussing, W. P. McDonald, Joseph Welch, Misses Annie O'Haran, Maggie Tucker, Mary McCoy, Clara McCoy, Mary Carra, and Mollie Frank, Leo J. Kaleski was master of ceremonies.

A Good Concert. This a poor time of the year to try to get a crowd into the opera house. The weather is usually the kind that makes a man want to take an electric fan along and "hant the woods. Last night was no exception. In fact, it was a little too cool for the young people who were caught out with an abbreviated duster and the porous summer shirt. But who could have told anything about the evening a few hours ahead? The problem would have given Jerry Tusk a sick headache.

It must have been the almanac that kept the opera house crowd down to a rather small size last night. However there was a fair sized audience present to hear the Fisk Jubilee singers. The singers were brought here by the ladies of Stapp's Chapel. It has been known that church ladies have invited their friends out to port entertainments. Sometimes this keeps down the size of the attending crowd.

But the entertainment which the ladies of Stapp's Chapel furnished last night was one of which they had a right to be proud, and no doubt they were. The Fisk singers give a concert that is sure to please. Their work is as good as that done by any colored organization in the country, perhaps it ought to be put first.

The singing of Mrs. Maggie L. Porter-Cole ought to receive special mention. C. W. Payne, the tenor, sang a solo, and had to respond to two encores. And nearly every number by the entire company was encored.

The audience was as well pleased as any you can meet in the opera house. Some of the selections given are now traveling under new names, if you will take the program's word for it.

The ladies cleared something more than $40 for their church. It is a good deal to do at this time of the year, but the class of entertainment furnished should have done more.

What was the matter with the colored people of the town? Only about four of them turned out. It was a concert of which they would have been proud, and the entertainment would have delighted them. There is nothing in the civil rights bill that interferes with a colored man giving his own people a royal welcome.

Received of the Treasurer. The members of the A. M. E. church gave a very pleasant reception to the pastor, Rev. J. S. Wood, and bride, at the church last night. The church was crowded. J. W. Woodford, I. R. Rogers and John Lester acted as a reception committee and presented the members to the minister, his bride, and those present from out of the city. Among these last were many who were at the wedding at Littlefield a week ago, including the bridesmaids, Miss Caldwell, of Keokuk, Ia., and Miss Johnson, of Quincy. Mrs. DeFugh, of Littlefield, mother of the bride, and Rev. Prettyman and wife, of Gibson City, were there also. A supper was served. The banquet included coffee, sandwiches, chicken, salad, ice cream and cake.

Taken to Springfield. City Marshall Shutt came to Decatur yesterday and got Thomas S. Shaw, who was arrested here Monday night for stealing $500 from Mrs. Mattie Wallace, a widow who kept a boarding house at Springfield. Shaw used to live in Decatur and was interested in a millinery store on North Water street. He went to Springfield, and became engaged to marry Mrs. Wallace. She had $500 saved up and showed Shaw where she kept it hid in her room. May 28 he disappeared and so did the $500. Marshall Mason was notified and he caught the fellow here. Last night Mrs. Wallace was in Decatur looking for friends of Shaw's here and trying to get an attorney to go to Springfield to defend him. She said she had gotten some one here to go on his bond.

Contract Signed. Contractor Moses, of Chicago, and the building committee signed the contract for the court house yesterday. The specifications were not changed, and the terms are as agreed upon and published a short time ago. Mr. Moses left last night for Chicago. He said he would order a carload of tools shipped today, and the first of next week would be here to begin work. His superintendents and foremen will be sent here. His other men he will hire here wherever possible. He expects to have 75 men at work on the building as soon as it is fairly started.

STRAY SCRAPS.

Stanton Field and wife, of Peoria, are visiting in Decatur.

Miss Mary Voorhies entertained last night a few friends.

Frank M. Abrams, of Blue Mound, left last night for Jacksonville, Fla.

T. F. McNabb, of Chicago, is visiting friends on East Eldorado street.

Ex Mayor Harris, of Clinton, has finally decided to remove to Decatur with his family.

He will practice law.

A new trailer is being built at the Citizens car house. It will be a summer car and will be built on the trucks of old No. 14.

Dr. W. B. Hostetler is now living in the second house west of the Presbyterian church, and will live there till his residence is remodeled.

J. Leforgee & Son have opened a real estate office at Warner's drug store on East Eldorado street. J. E. Patterson is there two nights a week.

From the amount of goods T. T. Springer is buying at the Chicago Cheap store his friends think he must be going into the dry goods business again.

The Crescent Tennis club had an unusually pleasant meeting at Riverside park last night. Besides tennis, footracing and boating were enjoyed.

Cliff Ott, from the A. L. Ide manufactory of Springfield, Ill., will set up the engine for the Decatur Electric Street railway. It was unloading yesterday.

George A. Bullard, of Newman, Ill., and Mrs. Nina B. Eagler, of Muncie, Ill., were married yesterday by Justice Ira B. Curtis, in his parlors at Hotel Brunswick.

Miss Mary McGinty, who was released from the insane asylum at Kankakee, will be taken back today. Her mind became unbalanced about six months ago as the result of an attack of la grippe.

Miss Mabel Wilson has been chosen by the Christian Endeavor society of the Baptist church, as a delegate to the Baptist convention at Chicago and at the Minneapolis international convention.

Frank Plummer, the greener, recently while assisting his wife into a street car, wrenched his shoulder. He has been down the last week with no immediate symptoms of improvement. Dr. Wey, who is treating him, says that the exact trouble cannot be stated.

Among the real estate transfers will be found one from the Decatur Title company to the Leader Manufacturing company. The Leader company's new factory was built on the ground of the tile company, and now it has been transferred to the company. The transfer includes 23 acres of land and the buildings on it.

MINERS MAY GO OUT.

The Coal Company Neatly Evades the New State Law.

It is quite likely that there will be another strike in the Decatur coal mine today. The new state law goes into effect today. It requires that the men shall be paid for their work by gross weight, and not by net weight, as has been the custom. Hitherto the coal would go through a screen before it would be weighed, and then the miners would be credited with the net weight. The scale has been 62 1/2 cents. The company has offered the men 53 cents for work in the old shaft and 50 cents in the new, beginning today, when the new law goes into effect. The company claims that it cannot pay the old scale, because it will not get as much coal for the money. The men claim that at the prices now offered they will get no benefit from the new law, and will lose if anything. Accordingly there is a general feeling in favor of refusing to accept the prices offered, and it is quite likely that is what will be done today. Then there will be a strike. Last night the miners had not decided what they would do.

Decatur Gets the Banner.

Some time ago mention was made of the fact that a handsome silk banner had been offered by Prof. G. W. Brown to the business college in his company that should make the best average in penmanship. The award was made a few days ago, and Decatur got the banner, leading the other colleges by a small per cent. However, Decatur got the banner, and the students here are extremely proud of it. The standing of the four colleges was:

Decatur..... 79.75 per cent

Peoria..... 79.09 " "

Galesburg..... 79.43 " "

Jacksonville..... 78.68 " "

The three judges were: C. B. Ferrigo, head bookkeeper First National bank, Bloomington, Ill.; C. C. Marquis, business manager Pantagraph, Bloomington, Ill.; W. H. Parlin, business manager Parlin & Orndorff Plow Co, Canton, Ill.

Decatur also came in for two other prizes, as may be seen below:

Highest five in individual grades:

N. E. Bleuler, Jacksonville, 85.43.

Lizzie Ockenga, Peoria, 84.66.

Alice Francis, Peoria, 84.60.

Asa C. Semple, Peoria, 83.03.

Joseph Kair, Galesburg, 82.50.

The most improvement was made as follows:

Ora Smith, Galesburg.

D. H. Wamsley, Decatur.

Dedication Exercises.

Beginning today, special exercises will be held every day at the English Lutheran church in connection with the dedication, which will occur next Sunday. William M. Brower, of Lafayette, Ind., is here to take charge of the singing, for which special preparation has been made. The following is the program of services, those on week day nights beginning at 8 p. m.:

Wednesday evening, sermon by Rev. A. W. Walter, of Easton, Pa.

Thursday evening, sermon by Rev. J. C. Bart, Lebanon, Ind.

Friday evening, sermon by Rev. M. J. Struwalda, D. D., Mulberry, Ind.

Sunday morning, 10:30 a. m., sermon by Rev. S. Wagenbalt, D. D., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Sunday afternoon, 3 p. m., dedication service, sermon by Rev. C. Koerner, Chicago.

Sunday evening, 8 p. m., sermon by Rev. W. A. Passavant Jr., Pittsburg, Pa.

The public is invited to attend all the services.

Nerve.

Wabash train No. 2 pulled in last night, with two of the nerviest individuals on the front end of the baggage car that have ever set foot in Decatur. They got on with their trunk at some station between here and St. Louis. When the train stopped here last night, the brakeman was paralyzed when he saw the two fellows making off through the gloom with the trunk between them. Eight or ten others kept them company this far. They did not leave on No. 2.

Oakland Park.

"Over the Hills to the Poor House," will be the attraction at the park tonight, to be followed by the marriage ceremony of Mr. Jarrell and Miss Ashford, Squire Stevens officiating. There was a very fair attendance last night.

CHARGED WITH RAPE.

A Dad's Barber, With a Wife in St. Louis in Jail—Similar Cases.

Elmer E. Walsh, a dude barber who has been putting on considerable style for a man who made $10 or $12 a week, is in the county jail now, and will probably be in the penitentiary before long. The only feeling the people of this community will have about his change of residence will be one of sympathy for his wife and regret that he cannot be sent to join Crawford.

Walsh is charged with two serious crimes. One is enticing away from home for immoral purposes a daughter of Officer Marion May, and the other is committing an assault on Tillie May.

Miss May went to church Monday night. On the way home Walsh met her and proposed a buggy ride. He had been paying her some attentions, representing to her that he was unmarried. They went buggy riding. When at 11 o'clock they had not returned, Miss May's family became uneasy, and Officer May went to look for them. It was found that Walsh had got the buggy at Hoddy & Wilson's stables, and there Officers Kirkbride and May watched for him to return.

He did not come till 3 o'clock. Then he came home alone. Officer May at first wanted to kill him, very naturally, too, but finally listened to the cooler counsel of the others, and allowed them to lock Walsh up in jail. He said he left the girl at Joseph Hill's four miles south of the city, and that she refused to come back with him.

Officer May went out for her at once, and she returned with him. The story she told was that Walsh proposed to go to Macon to a party.

She was surprised when told that Walsh was a married man. She told her father when he got to Hill's yesterday that she would not go home with him and would not come back to Decatur. She looked pale and nervous, and evidently was laboring under excitement. She came back with her father, though. The young lady has always borne an unblemished reputation.

Walsh has worked in different barber shops, but has of late had a shop of his own under the National bank. He has been known more as a gambler, lately, than as a barber. He did keep house with his wife at 430 West Cero Gordo street until a few months ago. His wife is now believed to be in St. Louis.

Bastardy Cases.

Miss P. per, the foster daughter of a farmer of that name who lives in Illinois township, was in Decatur yesterday and swore out a warrant for a neighbor named Culp, charging him with being the father of her unborn child. The warrant was served on Culp yesterday, and the trial will be had soon. He is a married man with some land in the northwest part of the county. Miss Piper says she visited Culp's family overnight on Jan. 28 and occupied a room alone. Culp got in bed with her while she was asleep. When she awoke he overcame her resistance and accomplished his ruin.

A young man was arrested at 11 o'clock Monday night on a bastardy charge preferred by a woman about 28 years old. He asked for an interview with her and promised marriage yesterday if proceedings were stopped. They were, but he did not show up yesterday, and it is supposed he has shipped.

TRACK AND TRAIN.

The yards last night were very quiet.

Traveler Passenger Agent Ingos was in the city yesterday.

T. S. Murray, of the B. C. R. & N. was in the city yesterday morning.

No. 1 was 25 minutes late last night. A hot box was the cause.

James Jordan, the popular Wabash car cleaner, is getting his cars in fine condition.

Superintendent M. C. Irish, of the dining car department, returned from Detroit last night.

Yardmaster Parry, of the T. H. & P., resigned last night, and ex-Hostetler Bapp, of the Wabash, took his place.

The car inspectors and others at both ends of the Wabash yards will change tomorrow noon, the night force going on in the day and the day at night. The change occurs every two months.

Master Car builder M. M. Martin left last night for Michigan City, where the Wabash is having 250 new 30 ton box cars built. The road is having 250 more built at St. Charles, Mo. All the roads are expecting a big crop next fall, and the Wabash is getting in shape to do its share of the business.
